

Answer to James Sample's slander 5th Juni 2020:

James Samples at hötorget.com – Make believe:

Part 1. written Friday 5th June 2020 - at about 15 o'clock

James Samples on hötorget hosting - Make believe

The impostor
flashed a line of 'wealthy assets'
in front of my eyes

that I of course wasn't supposed to ask about

'golden promises charm'
his half lies I saw through the faked 'I love you'

I really admired his wit
but - as his promises was to be 'fulfilled'
didn't fit.

There came the hit, on my social reputation
and the 'sensation'
about the disgusting 'thanks' he gave.

I had told him
'one more time, me on an impostor goes down,
that could ruin my life'

the bastard didn't care
there was something in the air
of 'always evading'
to get caught red handed.

And that wasn't all
he persecuted me -
so I would fall

may Allah not let him succeed
I didn't know actually a person could be so nice

and still be a deadly peril...

The impostor is working in blackmail fashion
Peeking into many different situations
And in secret gather information.
When he knows he's got that card to push his yet unaware victim
Into desperation
He simply leaves it there
Coming up with some phony explanation

The victim feeling that sting of irritation
Is slowly pushed further and further towards the ledge.

When he blows his top
The assault comes as a shock
Unless at that point
He's done everything right
All to Allah's might.

That devil will focus on an overproportioned fault
And self-righteously claim 'it's all your fault'
That lie is (one of) the worst hurts.

Part 3. Written 08:30 10 June 2020

He's a traitor on all levels –
Materia he craves, and is prepared to destroy your friends and lovers
By giving "what you really think about them"
Some words you've thrown out in desperation previously.
He's a traitor to Allah and enlightenment
As Periander suddenly turning
In pretence the whole thing was a joke,
Murdering the new-born baby
With his own hands.

He's foremost using some myth, of his skills in saving people from accidents.
Everybody is supposed to admire his past background,
When suddenly the interrogation bulb, is flashed in your face
And smite gets your good name
And that devil has no shame,
At all levels of reality comes the assault

The traitor being worst than Judas, who out of envy betrayed the Master,
But only by leading the enemy to the physical site
Judas hanged himself later,
But this devil will never have even that much sense.

James Ira Samples, of Paducah, Kentucky, U.S.A. age 48 got paid from MBM to host MBM's websites; MBM had pity on him in February 2020 when MBM met him, poor, homeless and aspiring at reclaiming his judicial rights in his native area, and MBM therefore gave him shelter and economical support.

The true story of this can be read in MBM's new novel 'Haqq i h l p  Jahbulons emissarier' which can be found on this webpage under 'Verk/B cker'.

The reason why the slander is on the top-results as one searches on MBM's name – is because – all these websites, including the one you at this very point is viewing – was linked to that slander

<https://www.hotorget.com/help-marcus-beijar-mellin/>

for several months, after 5th June 2020. This could be done because of an arbitrary procedure that James Ira Samples took against MBM, similar to when Jacob Schiff, with the money he had been given by Nikolaj II, the last Tsar of Russia, to make Jacob Schiff stop his' financing of the war between Japan and Russia in the beginning of the 20th century, with those very same money financed the October Revolution, that made an end to Russia.

On this picture you can see the address to James Ira Samples:

There is a concern for MBM that – during the time James Ira Samples was under his shelter and support – he fooled other people out of their money – MBM can just say that he has sympathy for them, and – that the only way he can think of for them getting back their dough is to get themselves to this address; where James Ira Samples, at least as he claimed for MBM, has stashes now unguarded tools for housebuilding and electrical work – worth in his own words 1 million U.S. dollars.

One hallmark of the impostor of James Ira Samples was him imitating a woman by taking fees and salary without an outright agreement.

Allah says in the Qur'an that we are allowed to use the same weapon an enemy uses against us against the enemy himself, so – there is permissibility for any one James Ira Samples has befooled – to make an arbitrary procedure against him, and take back money by "stealing" those tools.

The screenshot shows a web browser window with multiple tabs. The active tab is titled "Man accused of kidnapping, assaulting woman". The URL in the address bar is "https://www.wave3.com/2019/03/12/man-accused-kidnapping-assaulting-woman/". The page header includes the WAVE 3 NEWS logo and navigation links for NEWS, CORONAVIRUS, WEATHER, VIDEO, SPORTS, ABOUT US, COMMUNITY, and DERBY CITY WEEKEND. The main headline is "Man accused of kidnapping, assaulting woman". Below the headline is a mugshot of a man with a goatee and mustache. To the right of the mugshot is a weather widget showing "75°" and "Currently in Louisville, KY". Below the weather widget is an "AUTHOR" section for Kayla VanMeter, with a small photo of her and social media icons. The article text begins with "By Kayla VanMeter | March 12, 2019 at 1:30 PM EDT - Updated March 12 at 1:30 PM" and "LOUISVILLE, KY (WAVE) - A man is charged with kidnapping and burglary after police said he forced a woman to spend the night with him before assaulting her." A second line of text reads "James Samples was in court Tuesday morning. In an arrest report, Louisville Metro police said he walked into a woman's home, forced her to leave with him and drove her to his house." The browser's taskbar at the bottom shows the date and time as 21:56 on 2020-06-14.

Look at this picture, look at the moustache, and see this picture MBM took, on the probably very same man:

We are having demands on James Ira Samples:

he is to return drugfreeme.fit to the owner MBM.

He is to pay re-compensation for having destroyed the websites drugfreeme.fit, virusb23.com, svanhilde.se, and marcusbeijarmellin.com prior to 5th June 2020.

He is to pay about 6000 swedish kronor as re-compensation for stealing 2 expensive jackets, one from the Finnish winter war, and the other an expensive hand made Italian suede jacket.

He is to pay about 10 000 Swedish kronor for having stolen a Fender 12 stringed guitar with hardcase and microphone.

He is to pay about 15000 kronor, for having destroyed the locks on MBM's apartment.

He is to pay about 1500 kronor, for having stolen a hammer, a multi tool and a pink towel plus some other things.

This means basically about 40 000 Swedish Kronor all in all.
